Meet the Judge:

Peter Matfin Ashlantie Samoyeds

I'm Peter Matfin and I'm your Judge for the forthcoming British Samoyed Championship Show.

I've been married to my wife, Melanie, for 41 years and we have always shared those years with our dogs. We first became involved with Samoyeds 28 years ago now. Our first came from June and John Bates in the 90s.

Subsequently, five others followed, of which three are Champions.

Our Affix is a portmanteau of our first two Samoyeds, Ashere and Atlanta. Ashere was always shortened to Ashie, and Atlanta was always nicknamed Lantie, so Ashlantie seemed the obvious choice.

I've also been a serving Committee member and supported Dog Societies in the North East. I have enjoyed Judging other Breeds throughout the UK.

You will all know me as I continue to be an active Committee member of The British Samoyed and usually undertake the Health and Safety role at the Club shows. Well, today I must wear a different hat (but I do have a Red coat that someone borrows at Christmas time).

Being invited to officiate and award CC's for the 3rd time at The British Samoyed Club's Championship Show by my Fellow Committee Members and Officers is an absolute honour.

I'm looking forward the show running along side Birmingham National Championship Show (another first for the club).

I sincerely hope you enjoy your day as much as I will.

Peter Matfin:
