ABOUT THE JUDGE

Long ago and far away a little girl went to visit her auntie.

Uncle worked for a big estate with lots of interesting animals and places. The girl met a dog.

Such a dog! He was kind of like the normal prick-eared curly tailed spitz type usually seen in those parts (she didn't know the terminology in those days!) but he was bigger, furrier and white. He smiled at her, with his dark eyes sparkling.

She knew one day she'd have a dog like this.

Once she got home, she went to the library to find a dog book to look up what kind of dog he was. And there was a picture: a Samoyed!

Twenty years later Lisa joined our family. She was a culture shock after our lovely, born-to-please lab/GSD/Heinz. She had the spitz intelligence and attitude, and you had to give her a reason for agreeing to any commands.

We needed help, and went to a training club. But it was a ring craft club.... And we found that Lisa's ambition was not to be a show dog. She'd stand with her ears half mast and glare at the judge.

Sadly I was hooked by then, and instead of giving up gracefully and sensibly I decided to go and get a proper show dog, well bred and happy to show off.

Enter Novaskaya Kareena Lafay of Arianrhod. She was a star all her life, won a CC but barked her way out of a few awards, and produced Ch Arianrhod Medi Arawn, winner of 19 CC's and a Working Group at Leeds a couple of years before it was split between Pastoral and Working. In those days championship shows regularly had an entry of 150+ Samoyeds, and many a club open show had over 100.

Times have surely changed, but the Samoyed is still the most beautiful breed in the world.

Thank you for your entries, I look forward to meeting your gorgeous dogs.

Vikki Lloyd (Arianrhod)
